

List of desirable contributors from Africa, given by Prof. Cranford Pratt, Univ. of Toronto (Political Science). The remarks are his.

Erisa Kironde, Department of Extra-Mural Studies, Makerere College, Kampala, Uganda. - History graduate, Cambridge - young, bright nationalist, moderate socialist.

William Sentenzi-Kajubi, Department of Geography, Makerere College, Kampala, Uganda. - Best African on the staff. Chicago Ph.D. Nationalist moderate socialist.

Terence Ranger, Dept. of History, University College, Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia. - Bright English radical in Rhodesia. Editor of an important broadsheet (mimeo'd). Very go ahead.

Colin Leys, Dar-es-Salaam, Tanganyika Ex-tutor of Balliol. Brilliant young Englishman. To start an adult educational college in Dar-es-Salaam. "a new Thomas H."

Dr. Bernard Chidzero, U.N. Commission for Africa, Addis Ababa. - Brilliant political scientist from Rhodesia. Experience in Canadian and British universities. Moderate political nationalist.

Mwai Kibaki, Makerere College, Kampala, Uganda. - London Ph.D. Economist, socialist, recently left the University to become the Secretary of the Kenya African National Union.

The Hon. Julius Nyerere, Prime Minister, Legislative Assembly, Dar-es-Salaam, Tanganyika. - Excellent nationalist leader and the only one at all given to intellectualizing his viewpoint. (Pr. thinks that in his case political office will not prejudice the expression of his views, though generally speaking one should avoid statesmen.)

List of persons and institutions registered by me as potential (or actual) contributors and helpers in distribution, and to be supplied both with the initial pamphlet, and then with free copies of No.1 of the journal (this even if they use the subscription form on the pamphlet: the second copy of No.1 should then be sent to them with a piece of paper with the editor's compliments, and invitation for further distribution'.

The materials (in particular No.1 itself, which comes out shortly before the summer holidays) should go by 2nd class air mail.

To the addresses underlined in the below list, as potential helpers in national distribution, H.C. should write personal letters; particular care is required in the case of Oslo Universitetsforlaget, since they may feel still a grudge about having been mentioned in your first round circular as publishers, while negotiations were still in course. In his letters, H.C. should refer to my having contacted the persons or institutions in question, with a view at their later helping in broadening distribution.

Technicalities.

address of that Soviet sociologist, V.A. Yadov; who should get a copy:

Connaught Hall, 41 Tavistock square, London W.C.1

Pierre Cot (address already given to H.C., only for safety's sake since he is approached through my Strasbourg friends: 18, quai d'Orleans Paris IVe.

Remarks to page-proofs (mainly, of course, for safety only): editorial note on contributor's opinions: simply say that every contributor expresses his personal views only. Of course, business management has nothing to do with this.

p. 9, 1st line of 3rd para: presumably terminology.

p. 22: in second para: contrast, about mid-page: preferred, 5 lines later

p. 23, 11 from below: spirit; p. 26: near end mid-para: dialectical (common)

p. 28, line 8: monmentators.

Vajda is excellent but might have been written by any reasonable economist everywhere (probably he also thus interprets the tasks of our journal). We need contributions from the socialist countries where people discuss their internal problematic of their economy—so also, a fortiori, from the West.

p. 42 appears me too short for filling a whole page: miscalculation?

p. 48, after 'blocs' near end of para, comma; 4 lines later: also

p. 54 first line, ~~55~~ p. 55, nr. end of 2nd para, commas; 5 from below: ~~not~~ ^{rec in}

p. 56, first line 2nd para: tendencies; 5th line from below an 'a' has to be interpolated before 'radically'; p. 53 end: ^{Silvan Peterson}

pp. 70 and 77: make M's 3rd Annex table: 'A-3', so as not to betray abbreviation (with his consent) from a larger paper!

This is all—not a bad printer, indeed!

Would it not be better to have page nos on contents-table?
